

Local High Meets Elkhart

BACK FIELD SEES COMPLETE CHANGE

Victory Over Elkhart Team Means Decision of Mishawaka Eleven.

With a rejuvenated back field, the South Bend High school eleven will face the Elkhart school eleven at the J. D. Oliver field this afternoon.

Today will determine whether the high school lads will maintain their pet name of being the scoreless wonders and whether they will show the training that the coaches have given them in the past week. Should they defeat Elkhart by a large score they will prove this. Such a victory will allow the South Bend eleven a claim of supremacy over the Mishawaka squad, since Mishawaka defeated Elkhart, though only by a fluke touchdown. But, on the other hand, if Elkhart should defeat or even tie the locals it will give the suburban boys the edge upon the South Bend team.

Coach Cooper has been out nearly every evening with Coach Burnham and has been of great assistance in bolstering up the local team's offensive work. It is the opinion of Coach Burnham that this is the reason the team has failed to materialize in the scoring side of the game.

The rebuilding of the backfield during the past week will probably overcome the weakness on the offensive. Capt. Max Buntman is now holding one half position and has been hitting the line like a seasoned backfield man. At the other half position is Smith, who vacated the pilot position in favor of Edwards, while full position is being filled in every sense of the word by Mazey. This combination has been working together like clockwork and if the line can puncture that of the Elkhart team, scoring is assured.

Elkhart Team Weak.

The Elkhart eleven is not up to the same standards that it was last year. The eleven has been defeated twice so far this season, with the backfield seemingly the main reason for their defeat. But the line is strong enough to overcome the rear weakness and South Bend will encounter some difficulty in making a hole. The railroad city line will probably outweigh the local team by 20 pounds to the man.

Special to The News-Times: ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 11.—Robert Golden, star guard of the 1917 high school team, will appear in the lineup against South Bend tomorrow. Delay by the school authorities in finding his school record has prevented him from playing previously this season. Golden weighs 200 pounds, and was twice wounded in action overseas with the artillery.

NOTRE DAME TO MEET MT. UNION

Northwestern and Chicago University Being Watched With Much Interest.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Although the Purdue-Indiana game scheduled for Lafayette, Ind. tomorrow, will command the interest of western football followers, unusual interest is being taken in the 1919 debut of the Chicago and Northwestern eleven. Chicago, represented by a team of unknown possibilities, will meet the Great Lakes naval training station team, while Northwestern, figured as a "dark horse" in the western conference race, will play DePaul at Evanston.

The battle between Illinois and Purdue will be the first clash of the season between two western conference eleven. The Illinois eleven is the more experienced and is expected to win handsily. Purdue had only one week in which to recover from the injuries its players received in the game with Franklin last Saturday. Defeat will eliminate one of the teams from "big ten" race.

Minnesota Meets Cornhuskers. Minnesota will meet Nebraska at Minneapolis in one of the other games of interest. Iowa downed Nebraska 18 to 0 a week ago on a muddy field and unless the Nebraska eleven shows considerable improvement, experts believe Minnesota will have little trouble in bagging a victory.

Wisconsin will go into action for the second time this season, meeting Marquette at Madison. Ohio State, favored by many critics to win the conference championship, will take on Cincinnati at Columbus. Notre Dame will be opposed by Mount Union at Notre Dame.

Leaking Clouds Force Team To Hibernial Rooms

BY ARCHIE WARD.

Leaking clouds prevented outdoor workout on Cartier field Friday afternoon. At the height of the downpour, about 4 o'clock, Coaches Rockne and Dorais, desiring to know the exact extent of the precipitation, stuck their palms out the window of their official chamber. Immediately issued an official communication to the effect that outdoor drill would be dispensed with for the day.

Consequently, the Notre Dame gridiron squad was wheeled into the gymnasium for the final workout preparatory to the clash with Mount Union this afternoon. The fortunate who were able to appear in uniform trotted up and down the hibernial quarters in signal practice for an hour.

The condition of the Gold and Blue has tended to depreciate the stock of the team in university circles. With five or six athletes incapacitated from service and with a team the calibre of Mount Union to go up against, it promises to be rough sledding for the locals in today's exhibition.

The Ohio delegation arrived in South Bend last night with a valise full of signals and with a goodly supply of confidence. Heading the influx of grid performers were Coach Young and Capt. Cholley. The latter is the mainstay of the team, a player who is said to be a whirlwind on offense and a demon on defense.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock. It will be the last opportunity to see the Notre Dame men in action for two weeks. Next Saturday they meet Nebraska at Lincoln.

Coach Miller and twenty yearlings departed for Valparaiso early this morning where they are slated to oppose the crack eleven of that place this afternoon.

HOUSE OPENS DEBATE ON BASEBALL PARLEY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Baseball talk had the right of way on the floor of the house as soon as it convened today.

Just before the debate on prohibition enforcement began, Rep. Gard, Cincinnati, arose.

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker," he said. "Does the house know that with that 10 to 5 victory yesterday Cincinnati is today the real capital of the nation?"

"Well, it's the first time in 50 years you have had a chance to crow about something," Rep. Madden, Chicago, shot back.

Rep. Smith, of Michigan, then started praising the Detroit Tigers, when Rep. Blanton, Texas, objected.

PROCTOR WILL DEFEND ELKHART UNIONISTS

Special to The News-Times: ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 11.—Atty. Robert E. Proctor, former state legislator, has been engaged to defend the 14 men, including many union heads, indicted for rioting in connection with the labor demonstration of Sept. 3 and 4. He made his appearance during the morning session of the superior court. Union labor is financing the legal fight to clear the men.

SOX DEPART FOR HOME.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Members of the White Sox, vanquished in the world's series, began to depart for their homes last night without waiting to receive their checks from their share of the series prize. The checks will be mailed them by the National Baseball commission.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS WITH IMPORTANT GAMES

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—College football assumes the stellar sport role throughout the east tomorrow with the playing of several important games of which the outcome is shrouded in doubt. While a majority of the larger institution eleven are scheduled to face opposing teams the defeat of which appears to be a foregone conclusion, there is just enough uncertainty sprinkled through the list of contests to add spice to the early October program.

The principal games of the week end include: Syracuse at West Point; North Carolina at Yale; Lafayette at Princeton; West Virginia at Pittsburgh; Colby at Harvard; Williams at Cornell; Brown at Colgate; Rutgers at Lehigh; Delaware at Pennsylvania; Johns Hopkins at Annapolis; Vermont at Columbia; Massachusetts Aggies at Dartmouth; Bowdoin at Holy Cross; Bucknell at Penn State; Tufts at Springfield; Amherst at Union; West Virginia Wesleyan at Georgetown; Rhode Island State at Wesleyan.

COMMISSION TO ARRANGE AROUND-THE-WORLD AIR RACE STARTS ITS TOUR

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The special commission appointed by the Aero Club of America and the Aerial League of America to organize the first round-the-world air race, was to start on its tour today.

The commission, consisting of Commodore Louis D. Beaumont, Maj. Charles J. Glidden and Benjamin Hillman, will visit various cities to organize local committees, appoint referees and select landing places. Its American itinerary includes Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Detroit, Milwaukee, Chicago, Minneapolis, Omaha, Kansas City, Denver, Seattle, San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco. It will start from San Francisco on Nov. 3.
